SEVENTY SECOND YEAR — No. 11 Thursday, May 19, 1966

THESE ARE OUR UPLAND YOUNG PEOPLE — It becomes tiresome to read of the antics of today's youth and the problems they have with their parents and law officers, and for a change, we publish four Upland High School students attired in Prom finery for the big social event of the school year which was held Saturday night. Left to right, Dorothy Aschenbrenner, Richard Mahoney, Greg Power and Linda Long. For other photos and a description of the Junior-Senior Prom see Page 14 of today's NEWS.

Mayor On SA Board In 'Surprise' Move

In a surprise move, the Board of Directors of San Antonio Water Company, Monday morning appointed Mayor James Christensen to serve on the board.

His appointment marks the first time in recent years that a member of the City Council who has not been a substantial stockholder has served on the SA Board.

City Manager Elwin Alder was on the board in 1965 but council action before the directors were elected this March stated that no city employe could serve on the board.

Mayor Christensen succeeds Warren Wass, who was elected Mar. 14 but died at his home before he could reach the meeting.

Former Mayor Max Hawkins received 2208.5 votes at the Mar. 14 meeting while Christensen received 2176.05 votes, far below the directors elected. Alder received 57.50 write-in votes.

The City of Upland owns approximately 28 per cent of the San Antonio Water stock.

Later in March, the council requested that the San Antonio Water Company directors adopt a cumulative method of electing directors which would eventually place two from the City Council on the Water Board.

Mayor Christensen after being notified of his appointment said, "This marks a great step forward for Upland -- nothing can stop us now."

Council Chamber Turns Courtroom

(For Budget and Other News, See Page 14.)

For about 30 minutes, Tuesday night, the chambers of the Upland City Council resembled a courtroom scene as legal minds questioned and cross-questioned and inferred legal suits.

It came about as a result of the city administration revoking the permit of contractor Harry Callaway for grading between 13th and 14th Streets west of Ukiah Way.

On hand were a dozen angry property owners represented by an Ontario attorney, C. F. and A. R. Tobin representing Tobin.

The property owners, most of whom reside on Ukiah Way, had entered strenuous objections this past weekend to the manner of grading performed by Callaway on a development of Norvell Realty, which blocked off their property walls and line on the West.

Tuesday evening, the permit was revoked and Callaway ordered to cease and desist. A meeting between the property owners and the Street and Lights Chairman Zella Stone was held Tuesday.

Tobin challenged the right of the city to revoke a permit. Mayor Christensen maintained that in the interests of the people the city had the right to revocations. Several bitter exchanges were made between the two and at one time, Tobin was not permitted to interject a statement.

Also inferred was the possibility of damage actions for nonfulfilment of the contractor's terms by Callaway's counsel.

'Town Hall' Civic Center Meeting Tuesday, 7:30 At Upland High

The Faculty Room of the Upland High School will be the scene of the first "town hall meeting" on the Civic Center beginning at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, May 24, according to Councilman Ronald Rossitter.

It is the first official meeting on the civic center project since the bond issue which was held in January and failed to get the required two-thirds favorable vote.

ROSSITTER, appointed by Mayor James Christensen recently, to head up community participation in the program, said that the Tuesday meeting is one designed to "hear everyone" who has anything to say on the matter, pro or con.

"This is a sincere attempt to bring the matter of the Civic Center directly to the people," Rossitter explained.

AS MAYOR CHRISTENSEN said in his newsletter last week, "I know that Rossitter will exert every effort to insure that the new proposal is what the people want and is within the scope of what we can afford."

In the recent city elections, it was charged by some of the candidates that the public was not fully informed on the bond issue and not invited to participate in the discussions and planning.

THE PRINCIPAL PURPOSE of next Tuesday's meeting is to make certain that the general public has a voice in the next proposal and its scope, Rossitter explained.

A second meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 14 at which time the results of the first public meeting will be summarized and presented to the general public.

Case Challenges Unification

A suit filed in Los Angeles Superior Court to be given a hearing May 27, challenging the Unruh school unification act, could vastly change the unification picture in Chaffey Union High School District.

Rowland School District has filed a petition in an attempt to void a unification election in La Puente Union High School District June 7 that also involves the Hudson and Walnut Districts.

The Rowland suit challenges the constitutionality of the Unruh act that gives some districts $15 per pupil while withholding the $15 from those that do not vote for unification.

The resulting unified district would be unwieldy and inefficient, according to the petition filed with the court, which asks the court to order the Los Angeles County registrar not to count the votes.

Chaffey Union High School District, which operates high schools in Alta Loma, Upland, Montclair and Ontario, covers nine elementary school districts.

One unificiation election failed last year, and unless there is some change, the same unification plan, making one district out of the CUHS District area, will have to be voted on again in 1967.

The State Legislature has not changed anything to date, but the courts could.

One Day Chamber Drive On Tuesday

The Upland Chamber of Commerce under the chairmanship of Dewey Cable will launch an intensive one-day membership campaign, Tuesday, May 24.

Members of the committee will meet at 8 a.m. at the Upland Inn for a Continental breakfast and a last minute briefing before they fan out with the intention of contacting every business firm and profession within an eight-hour period.

The goal is 100 new members over last year's membership and Manager Tony Malone says that the target for Tuesday will be 30 of that desired 100 members. A follow-up campaign is designed to sign up the remaining 70.

After a door-knocking and selling campaign, co-chairman Cable and Dick Price will summon the committee together at 4 p.m. at the Upland Inn to review the day's progress.

Chamber Manager says that the next year's program depends on the outcome of the Tuesday drive.

Included on the drafting board are advertisements on the community, the printing of color brochures, a land survey inventory, the printing of 10,000 maps and other projects publicizing the city of Upland.

Not the least is the downtown revitalization project now that the City Council has named Councilwoman Zella Stone and Councilman Mike Rossitter to work with the merchants and property owners.

Those who will be making membership contacts are as follows:

'Ship Builder' Locates Job Now At Work

William Benjamin Williams, the man 'for whom it took courage to speak,' as described in last week's issue of the News, speaks today with gratitude.

Shortly after the publication of his dire need of employment, Williams was notified by the Veteran's Division of the Department of Employment as to the availability of a job. An interview was arranged at this time.

Tuesday morning, Williams punched the time clock at General Electric as a full time employee, working in the hardware department at Ontario International Airport.

Williams' duties will include sorting equipment parts, and the pay will be higher than that which he received prior to his affliction.

He told the NEWS that he plans to go ahead and complete the model of the battleship which he hoped to display at shopping centers as a means of living.

So goes the story of the ex-machine gunner, who twenty years after the war, still fights the war against death.

White altar bouquets decorated the altar.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Warren Wilken.

She wore a white lace over light blue street-length sleeveless sheath made and styled by herself. The headpiece was a cluster of three white rose buds with very small white veil. She carried white rose buds on her parents' white Bible.

MAID OF HONOR was Kathi Wilkin, the bride's sister. She wore a white lace over light yellow street-length dress with three-quarter length sleeves and a yellow hat with a small yellow veil. The bride's maid carried one long-stemmed yellow rose bud.

Jack Dodd of Claremont, a friend of the groom, was the best man. Usher was Alfred Schmidt of Ontario.

A reception for 36 guests was held after the ceremony in the First Lutheran Fellowship Hall where a wedding cake with two white columns and three blue wedding bells was served. Assisting hostess was Miss Betty Larrabee of Upland.

The couple took a brief honeymoon trip to Newport Beach and are now at home at 546 N. 6th Ave.

The groom is an inspector with Rohr Aircraft at Riverside. He attended schools in Alton.

Mrs. Robertson is a clerk-typist at the Upland City Hall. She graduated from Upland High School and attended Chaffey College. She is a native of Upland.

Lady Luck Joins AL Golf Classic On Friday, May 13

Lady luck was with the many golfers who turned out Friday, May 13th for the annual golf classic and dinner dance of the Assistance League of Upland. They were treated to a full and exciting day at the Walnut Valley Country Club.

Festivities began when the first golfers teed off in the morning and continued into the evening with dinner and dancing.

Dr. Robert H. Crawford Jr., was the top man golfer of the day and for his handiwork received the low gross trophy and a portable color television. Mrs. Mitchell Thompson was the lucky lady of the day and for her low score received a trophy and a beautiful set of luggage filled to the brim with "goodies".

Many other outstanding prizes such as leather gold bags with clubs, T.V. sets, Airline trips and cameras.

The evening was topped off with the personal appearance of star of stage and screen Eddie Albert.

Mrs. Howard Snider and Mrs. Carl Hase were general chairmen of the affair. The dinner dance was planned by Mrs. John Cooper and Mrs. Fred Dischinger. Many other League members assisted in making Friday May 13th a banner day.

All funds raised through this and other Ways and Means events go directly to support the philanthropies of the Assistance League of Upland, a chapter of the National Assistance League.

Officials Residence

there is no clear-cut law. Partly it is an ethical and moral decision, he said.

He also noted that residence requirements for different public bodies are different.

"I feel that Mr. Keechler is a fine gentleman, and is doing a fine job," he pointed out. Yaeger remarked that if there is a real problem coming up over residence, or a lot of criticism or public uproar, then it might not be worth the fight, even though definitely legal.

"The law intends for a director to represent the interests of his division. It therefore imposes residence requirement. Mr. Keechler has been able to represent his division as well or better than anyone," Yaeger said.

He explained that a man might sleep in a district, but work and have his interests in Los Angeles, which isn't necessarily good for the district.

Mr. Yaeger said he had cited cases where the overall policy is fulfilled, that of maintaining contacts, where Keechler has an apartment, lives a portion of the time in the district, votes, has business connections, farming interests, property, and many contacts.

"On the basis of all this, the courts in this case probably would decide the area of residence was met to properly represent the interests of the district, for the 'policy of law' is fulfilled," he said.

THE CHINO BASIN Municipal Water District was organized June 6, 1950, under the Metropolitan Water District Act of 1911, as amended.

It's principal function is to be a supplemental source of water supply, bringing water from the Colorado District to the Southern California area.

The CBMWD currently has an estimated budget for the 1965-66 fiscal year of $1,069,488.

The assessed value of the district is about $400 million. The tax rate for the district is 8 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

This tax rate has brought in $246,800 in 1963-64, $264,952 in 1964-65, and is estimated to bring in $279,000 in 1965-66.

Board members besides Mr. Keechler are Robert Walline representing the Upland area, whose term expires Dec. 31, 1968; and Carl B. Masingale, representing the Cucamonga area, whose term expires Dec. 31, 1968.

The other two members are John D. Saussaman, President of the Board, representing the Fontana area, and Ray Ferguson, representing Ontario, and sitting on the parent MWD Board.

The Saussaman and Ferguson terms expire Dec. 31, 1966, along with Keechler. Since neither of them had any opposition, the Board of Supervisors will name them to their posts without the formality of an election, as in the case of Keechler.

THE NEWS kicked off a major reorganization of the CBMWD Board in 1960 with its articles on the operation of the District. This resulted in the election of Walline and Masingale in 1960, and the resulting appointment of Richard Hall as manager and other employee turnover, as well as major changes in operation of the district.

Riverside Hosts Nazarene Meet

The pastor and a delegation of members of the Church of the Nazarene in this area will take part in the annual Southern California district assembly to be held at the Memorial auditorium in Riverside on Wednesday through Friday, May 25-27.

Annual reports will be made by pastors of all 89 churches on the district. These churches now have a total of about 12,500 members and a combined Sunday school enrollment of 25,000 persons.

Dr. Nicholas A. Hull, Orange, will give his annual message as district superintendent. He will outline plans for the 1966-67 year. District officers will be elected.

The presiding general superintendent will be Dr. V. H. Lewis, of Kansas City, Mo., who has served continuously since 1960 in the highest elective office in the church. He formerly was head of evangelism.

Dyal Requests Post To Take Another Look

Subj: Joan Didion's recent article on the Miller murder case in the May issue of the Saturday Evening Post

Dear Mr. Emerson:

I don't wish to just scold, call the writer names, or even try to guess what was wrong when she wrote the article. It could have been bad accommodations before coming to San Bernardino County, possibly she struck one of our rare windy days. As I write this, it is a windy, nasty morning in the Nation's Capital but the sun will come out soon and the Azaleas and Dogwood are in bloom, so no scolding. Rather, I am wondering if you will do the kindness of offering Miss Didion an expense-free trip back to our County. My Lady and I will meet her and be delighted to personally escort her throughout an area which is steeped in wonderful history (a history which she evidently did not read).

We would like to have her see our palms in the evening sunset, the feathery eucalptus against the sky, smell the fragrance of our orange blossoms, and taste some of the finest food anywhere. This would also give us an opportunity to psychonalyze the "hate" complex which makes Miss Didion so caustic about the area.

Please note by the reverse side of my letterhead that she was talking about a district that will hold four eastern states. Please notice the population growth records which indicate that somebody likes it. Right now in our community we are starting a brand new educational center which will be dedicated to a beloved Rabbi, and the Pastor of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Monsignor Nunez, if beloved by all faiths for his work with youth and I could continue the list. Please extend our invitation.

The murder case, if it was murder, was still an uncommon crime for our area. Invite Miss Didion to visit with us and learn to know the "common" and lovely people who have settled the intriguing communities of our high desert, the crests of our pine covered mountains and the valleys of the old Lugo Rancho and the foothills from Fontana to Upland. Incidentally, my mother lives in a mobile home and wouldn't live anywhere else. Mother would like to invite Miss Didion to lunch while she is our guest.

Sincerely,
KEN W. DYAL
MEMBER OF CONGRESS

SMALL RETURN

The average California farmer, according to Frank Bennett, deputy director of the California Department of Agriculture, earned but 4% on his investment in 1965. Had he invested the same money elsewhere he could likely have earned as much as 6% on the investment, says Bennett.

'Architect' Name Misuse In News Story

On April 28 THE NEWS printed a story and picture of the new Security First National Bank to be built in Upland.

THE NEWS story included references to the "Architectural firm of Barmakian and Norman," and also a reference to "Andy Barmakian, one of the architects...."

The NEWS was visited May 13 by Roger K. Sax, Special Investigator for the Board of Architectural Examiners, who explained that a "complaint" had been filed with his office because of the incorrect usage of the term architect.

The Board of Examiners has offices in Sacramento, Los Angeles, and San Francisco. Among the Architectural Board members is J. Dewey Harnish of Ontario.

The fact is that the firm name is "Barmakian-Norman, Architects - Engineers - Planners." James Norman is a licensed architect, and member of the AIA, and Andrew Barmakian is a licensed consulting engineer.

Mr. Barmakian is qualified to do architectural work, but is not allowed to use the title of "architect," according to Mr. Sax.

THE NEWS IS happy to set the record straight, for Mr. Barmakian had nothing to do with the story, and he did not use the term "architect."

Upland ARC Observes 50th; Awards Made To Volunteers

A Marine Color Guard from Twenty-Nine Palms Marine Corps Base opened ceremonies for the Golden Anniversary dinner of the Upland Chapter of the American National Red Cross.

The dinner was held Friday evening at the Jade Palace in Montclair with a theme of "Fruit of Our Golden Years." The fruit referred to the chapter's accomplishments during its fifty years of service.

The Chapter has had 50 years of disaster service, service to military families, and production service; 49 years of nursing services and Junior Red Cross; Water safety, 34 years; Gray Ladies, 26 years; first aid service, 24 years; 24-hour coverage service for 16 years, and motor service for 16 years.

Three 50-year pins were awarded to ladies who have been associated with the Chapter since its inception. Recipients were Miss Julia Rugg, chairman of production service; Mrs. Eva Moore; and Miss Frances Paul received a pin awarded posthumously to her mother, Mrs. Earl Paul.

Rear Admiral John Alderman, USN (ret.), master of ceremonies, spoke of the character of the help to people which the Chapter has given during its fifty years of existence. The Chapter has met every quota set by the National organization for disaster aid. There were only 170 Red Cross chapters in the United States in 1917, one year after the Chapter was founded. Admiral Alderman ended by calling attention to signal flags strung upon the wall of the room. They spelled out "well done."

Mrs. B. Eugene Taylor, chairman of volunteers, presented awards and pins. Those receiving National Awards for service in the preservation of human life were Robert W. Pilkington, Harvey Stone, Mrs. Jack Kane, Charles Hale and Ben Mackall. Awards for outstanding and dedicated service in all nursing programs were given to Mrs. Walter Noehren, Mrs. Crawford Judge, Mrs. William Houtz, Mrs. Howard Diaz, Mrs. A. S. Hastings, Mrs. Henry Reardon, Mrs. Donald Connoly and Mrs. Kenneth Cooper.

For service involving school programs, awards were presented to Mrs. Rachel Bissett, Mrs. Bernard Klepper, Mrs. Eleanor Blom, Miss Ann Weinhart, Mrs. Dean Anderson, Mrs. Hugh Cleveland, Miss Marjorie Pleasant, Mrs. Lloyd McCallum and Mrs. George Parker.

Special awards in various categories were given to Mrs. Delores Reid, Mrs. Robert Nichols, Mrs. William Bottin, Mrs. Donald Stewart, Mrs. Gibson Ellerbeck, Mrs. John Alderman, Mrs. Doris Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rogers, and Walter Holts.

Those receiving five-year pins included the Mmes. Leo Cherbak, Donald Stewart, Ralph Regan, Roger Olson, George Pagliuso, Carl Reitz, Ray Land, Clifford Kinnison, Harold Yoder, Samuel Elder, Reuben Wingerd, C. P. Jacobs, C. L. McCoskey, Arthur Accomazzo; the Misses Ellen Marie Chappel, Pamela George, Marybeth Snider, Diane Warner and Barbara Tibbetts; and Messrs. Redford gross and Rex Wignall.

Ten-year pin awardees were Mmes. Keith Koehler, Gibson Ellerbeck, R. A. Burleson, Paul Kiszeli, Harry Picard, Robert McDowell, Robert Gross, Ralph Santolucito; and the Messrs. Paul Kiszeli, Howard Theurer and George Colbath.

The Misses Eunice Mitchell and Frances Barks; the Mmes. Thomas Ware, Dana Alexander, and Earl Hawthorne; and Mr. C. Robert Erickson received 15-year pins.

The evening's speaker was Robert F. Shea, vice president of the American National Red Cross, Washington, D.C. He stressed the dedication of the Red Cross to the service of humanity through the years. "Red Cross is an expression of man's love for his fellow man," he said.

W. Stanley Allen, vice chairman of the Chapter, introduced special guests, including: Senator Eugene Nisbet, Rev. and Mrs. John Harrison, mayor pro tem George Gibson and Mrs. Gibson of Upland. Past Chapter Chairmen introduced included the Mmes. Warren Wass, Edwin Wickstrom, Philip White, and the Messrs. John Baumgartner, Col. D. J. Rutherford, Clinton Thompson, J. F. Grass, Jr.

STUDENTS COST $
In reviewing next year's student body budget, some interesting facts were unearthed. Here are some of the unknowns. To belong to the San Antonio League, UHS must pay for each student that is enrolled on its campus. This amounts to $400 or roughly, 22¢ a head! For those students with chronic ailments, the school loses nearly $2 for each day of their absence! How expensive an ordinary student becomes!

Successful Swim Season Climaxed By Awards

Swimming honors were presented to Upland High School team members May 10 at the annual Awards Night at the UHS cafeteria.

The potluck affair was sponsored by the Upland High School Booster Club.

Named as Most Valuable Swimmers for the Varsity were Jerry Peres and Don Shattuck.

The B team's Most Valuable swimmer was Bob Kegley, while the C team's Most Valuable swimmer was John Jenkins.

All received trophies.

A new award for the Most Improved Swimmer was presented to Mark Holz, a varsity team member.

Steve Cramer of the C team received the Coaches Trophy, as the outstanding swimmer for working hard, being dedicated, desire to improve, intestinal fortitude, (and not necessarily setting records).

Coach Faure told his family audience that the Varsity ended the season with 10 wins against 2 losses and in a tie for the San Antonio League championship.

He described the season's highlight, coming back after a defeat by Claremont to win their second meet. The varsity began an extra early-morning swim workout to get in better shape. "As we go through life, anything worthwhile requires a lot of hard work," Coach Faure said in praising his varsity swimmers.

VARSITY SWIMMERS this year included Mike Asay, Dave Ashcom, Crowson Haley, Mark Holz, James Martin, Gary Mercer, Bill Palmer, Jerry Peres, Don Shattuck, Terry Throop, and Jon West.

THE B TEAM finished the season with an 8-win, 3-loss, and 1-tie record.

Former Postmaster Challenges Incumbent SB County Clerk

ROYSE E. BARNETTE

DENNIS WARDLE

"The residents of San Bernardino County can depend on a full time, available county clerk with a very positive attitude toward prompt courteous and efficient service if they favor me with election," Mr. Barnette promised in his filing statement. "My qualifications for the office include the following: 29 years in supervisory and administrative positions in the largest post office in San Bernardino County. My responsibility extended over 450 employees with an annual budget of $3 1/2 million. The San Bernardino Post Office held a peculiarly vital position in mailing service in that it is one of only 552 Sectional Center Post Offices in the entire nation. Such post offices performed the function of expediting and distributing mail of all classes for other post offices. In the case of San Bernardino Center, it serviced 82 other post offices in San Bernardino and Riverside County.

Barnette further stated, "During my administration as Postmaster, the San Bernardino Post Office was recognized as one of the most efficiently operated post office in California. And this was during a time of population explosion and with a very mobile population here in Southern California."

"The added burden of operating a post office in such a society required greater efforts on the part of all postal employees, yet I believe the morale of the employees was at its highest point during my administration."

Barnette promised if elected to approach the office of County Clerk with the same fair and equitable treatment of the dedicted employees of the Clerk's office. He also stated he would make assignments, promotions, and employment practice decisions based on ability and not on descrimination or favoritism, positively will not campaign for, nor seek any other elective office while serving as County Clerk.

"In view of my success in operating a department of the scope and complexity of the San Bernardino Post Office, I feel confident that I can use my ability and experience to improve the service and efficiency of the Clerk's Department," Mr. Barnette averred.

Junior High Mathematicians Compete In Annual Field Day

Eleven area schools had their best mathematics students participating in the Eighth Annual Junior High School Mathematics Field Day, Saturday at Montclair High School.

The Field Day, patterned after the Cal Poly Math Field Day, was originated by Dale Stevens, former Upland High School mathematics department chairman, and Harry Couzins, former Chaffey High School mathematics department chairman and now Alta Loma High School math-science co-ordinator.

The young mathematicians competed for prizes including slide rules, books on mathematics and math tables donated by the Ontario, Alta Loma and Montclair Kiwanis Clubs and the Soroptimists.

The contests included Mad Hatter, a game of rapid estimation and calculation, Terminology Tournament, Chalk Talk, a five-minute speech contest; and Leap Frog Relay in which a team of two completed problems and checked each other's work.

SB County Ranks 18th In Per Capita Income Tax

Californians filed a record five million State income tax returns in 1965 reporting a record of $4.24 billion in adjusted gross income for the 1964 income year, State Controller Alan Cranston, Chairman of the Franchise Tax Board, said today.

Adjusted gross income reported on the five million returns averaged $8,483 per return compared with $8,004 for 1963. This average is computed by dividing the total adjusted gross income reported on all returns by the total number of returns filed. The median average adjusted gross income reported on all returns for the 1964 income year was $7,100. One-half of all returns reported incomes above and the other half below this figure.

Seventy-nine of every 100 taxpayers reported tax liability. The 3.9 million taxable returns reported $398.5 million of self-assessed tax for an average of $100 per return--up substantially from the preceding year's high of $88 per return.

Marin County, with its 57,200 taxable and nontaxable returns and $588.7 million of adjusted gross income, ranked first in average income per return with $10,290. Next was San Mateo County with $9,982 followed by Contra Costa County, $9,287, and Orange County, $8,994. San Bernardino County had an average adjusted gross income per return of $7,872 and ranked 18 among the counties. A total of 137,040 returns were filed in San Bernardino County.

Delinquent Tax Publication Soon

Annually the State Law prescribes the publication of all real property tax amounts delinquent as of April 10, together with a listing of those parcels of property which have been delinquent five years or more and are to be deeded to the State of California for delinquent taxes.

The annual publication is revolved between the daily newspapers in San Bernardino County. This year it is being published in the Fontana Herald-News and will appear in the publications of June 7,14 and 21.

Copies of the publication will be mailed upon request, such request must be received on or before June 1, and addressed to Tax Sales-Publication Division, County Tax Collector, Third Floor, Hall of Records, San Bernardino, California.

Requests received before the above date will be mailed direct from the Fontana Herald-News Office on or about June 9.

In Los Angeles County the delinquent lists are published in both daily and weekly newspapers in each local community, thus bringing the tax delinquent information into each area so that the public has immediate and easier access to the facts, which is the essence of public notices whereby the people are kept properly informed.

County Offices Shuffle Set To Get Underway Next Month

A 5-year program of expansion, renovation and relocation of County offices is scheduled to begin next month with the shift of the Probation Department from the second floor of the old Courthouse Building to the basement of the recently purchased Civic Center Building.

County Administrative Officer Robert C. Covington said that the program will provide adequate facilities for most County offices and facilities for approximately 10 years after the completion of the program.

He said that the budget of the Public Works Department includes approximately $40,000 to pay for the program during the 1966-67 fiscal year.

Covington said the program includes the creation of space for a new Superior Court Department plus a jury assembly room, the construction of a new jail and Sheriff's Department Headquarters, and the eventual relocation of the Board of Supervisors offices to the fifth floor of the Civic Center Building.

The Civic Center Building was recently purchased by the County from Loma Linda University for approximately $5 million.

He said that no precise timetable has been set for the program, but added that he expects relocation and renovations to be well under way by mid summer.

Top Priority, he said has been given to the shift of the Probation Department to the Civic Center Building, and the relocation of the County Clerk's office from the third floor of the Courthouse Annex to the second floor of the same building.

He said that the new court, plus a jury assembly room, will be located in these vacated areas, thus giving over the entire third floor of both buildings to the courts and related facilities.

COTTON CUTBACK

California farmers, because of federal cotton legislation, are cutting their 1966 cotton acreage by some 23% according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Ex-MWD Director Questions Practices

(Editor's Note: Al Reynolds has been in this area since 1908. He was Manager of the San Antonio Water Company from 1927 to 1947. He represented Upland as an elected Board member for the Chino Basin MWD in 1952-53, and served as this area's representative on the Metropolitan Water District Board from 1952-63. His open letter questioning current water policy was submitted to THE NEWS. The letter is directed to the CBMWD Director for this district.)

• • •

Mr. Robert Walline -- Director of Chino Basin Municipal Water District --

Please explain why the Metropolitan Water District with funds from the proposed $850 million bond issue, will build pipe lines to serve Calleguas MWD in Ventura County and Las Virgenes MWD in Los Angeles County, adjoining Calleguas.

These pipe lines to cost $13 million.

Under the terms of annexation of these areas Metropolitan is specifically exempted from the construction of pipe lines and facilities to serve them.

Also, why does Metropolitan propose to buy from these same agencies, for $6 million of bond funds, the present pipe line which these agencies built from the MWD Feeder in Glendale to their areas?

Is this not a subsidy of $19 million?

When the San Diego County Water Authority was annexed to Metropolitan it was agreed that San Diego would merge its 112,000 acre feet Colorado River water right with that of Metropolitan and Metropolitan would deliver Metropolitan water to San Diego six miles south of the San Diego County line.

Under the U.S. Supreme Court ruling Metropolitan will loose the 112,000 acre feet right and be reduced from a total of 1,212,000 to 550,000 acre feet from the Colorado River.

The agreement with San Diego did not protect Metropolitan against the loss of this water right and Metropolitan is still obligated to deliver water to them. The present book value of the 112,000 acre feet $447. per acre foot is about $50 million.

San Diego's present entitlement to MWD water is 8.2%. When Metropolitan is reduced to 550,000 acre feet, San Diego will (on present basis) be entitled to 8.2% of 550,000 or 45,100 acre feet at $985 per acre foot (present value) worth about $44 million.

Therefore, instead of Metropolitan gaining water rights from San Diego worth about $50 million, it will in effect give to San Diego rights worth about $44 million.

*The delivery lines to San Diego have cost Metropolitan $35 million. With money from the proposed bond issue Metropolitan will build:

*The Auld Valley Reservoir, to regulate San Diego water - cost $18.2 million, and

*San Diego Aqueduct # 2 - cost $17.1 million,

*San Diego Aqueduct #3 - cost (about 1986) $18 million.

*Total $132,300,000 million.

Metropolitan should not build the Auld Valley Reservoir and should insist on renegotiating the Annexation Agreement and making San Diego pay the full cost of their delivery lines beginning now.

Underground replenishment water is now used primarily to replace Domestic - Municipal water pumped out for current use.

The reduced rate, or subsidy, on this water from 1958-1965 was $11,725,930. Estimated Subsidy, 1965-1990 (5 years), is $295,323,444. The combined estimated subsidy to the Central Basin, West Basin, Orange County and Upper San Gabriel Valley MWD of their Replenishment Domestic water supply (thru 1990) is $307,049,374.

These are wealthy areas and do not need subsidies. These subsidies are scandalous and will be paid by the MWD Domestic water users and tax payers.

Why do you support these policies?

A. C. Reynolds,
Ex Director Metropolitan Water District

Hoodlums Strike-Wounding One

Hoodlums in cars swept into Upland early Sunday morning and raised havoc, shooting an Ontario youth in the leg, and firing at two automobiles as well as setting one car afire with a molotov cocktail.

The wanton acts could have been associated with a gang fight, but the identity of the attackers has not been established.

PEDRO MARQUEZ MARTINEZ was shot in the right leg above the knee with a .22 caliber pellet about 2 a.m. Sunday morning as he was leaving a friend's home at Guadalupe Drive.

Martinez told officers that he and a friend, Frank H. Ramirez, had walked out of the house and were going to depart in Ramirez' car which had been scorched earlier by an ignited bottle of gasoline apparently thrown from the car.

Someone, not identified, pointed a gun from the window of a passing car and hit Martinez. He was taken to San Antonio Hospital where the pellet was removed and later transferred to San Bernardino County Hospital.

Shortly after midnight a beer bottle containing gasoline was thrown against Ramirez' car in the 1200 block of Myrtle Drive, police reported.

THIS INCIDENT was witnessed by Mrs. Teresa Cardenas of 1205 Myrtle Drive who told the police that she looked out of her window and saw someone throw an object from a car. She said that the object hit and burst into flames. Ramirez drove away and stopped in a housing project parking lot. The flames were extinguished by the time police and firemen arrived.

Later officers learned from Hector Amparan what might have caused the shooting and destruction.

Amparan told officers that he and his half-sister, Rosie Romero, were stopped in front of St. Joseph's Catholic Church by a gang as they drove north on Campus Ave.

MEMBERS OF THE GANG were on both sides of the car, Amparan said, and one demanded to know if the two were from Upland.

Miss Romero said that they were not, according to Amparan.

A youth standing on the driver's side pushed a lead pipe through a car window and then pulled it back as if he were going to strike, Amparan stepped down on the throttle and departed from the scene but something hit his car as he left, he said.

ABOUT ONE HOUR later, Amparan said that his windshield was broken on the driver's side when a carload of youths passed by and one fired a shot from the gun.

Police were rounding up suspects for questioning over the weekend

Junior - Senior Prom Highlights UHS Activities

Sayonara Theme Intrigues Guests

Upland High School seniors were hosted by the Junior Class at the annual Junior-Senior Prom, held Saturday, May 14, at the high school.

The prom, a highlight of the social season for the Highlanders was held in the school cafeteria, which was artfully converted into an atmospheric ballroom, enhanced by an interesting bridge entry, tropical wall murals, and a bamboo fenced lanai, this fulfilling the Oriental theme-Sayonara.

The 'Skyliners,' a musical group comprised mostly of Chaffey College students, played from 8:30-11:30 p.m., while the promgoers musically interpreted rhythms from the Frug to Waltz.

Refreshments, placed on a banquet table, included hors d'oeure petits fors, and punch.

Mid-evening, a Prom Couple was selected. The winners, Charlene Spicer and her escort, Mickey Whitten, received tickets for a night on the town. The couple will have dinner for two at a West Covina restaurant, followed by an evening at the Carousel.

FINISHING TOUCHES - A pre-prom glimpse of the typical teen, as posed by Allene Accommazo. Her gown for that special evening is reflected in the mirror.

To Demolish 'Eyesore' Apartments

The unfinished apartment complex at Foothill Blvd. and Redding Way, long considered an eyesore by the Upland City Council, is about to go.

City Manager Elwin Alder told the council, Tuesday night, that a demolition permit had been obtained by Van Nuys Savings and Loan on Friday, May 13, and indications were that work to level the apartments would begin in about a month.

Similar apartments in Monrovia are already being demolished, also the property of the same financial firm, and also ordered to be demolished.

Councilman Gibson urged that a demand letter be written to step up the destruction of the buildings earlier than the one-month in the future deadline indicated.

Usher at a cost of $50,680; the awarding of a bit to Wilson Equipment of Colton for two refuse packer trucks at a figure of $32,203.20 and an award of a gas tax project at the SE corner of Benson and 11th St. in connection with Cabrillo School at a figure of $20,470.20 with the school district contributing $9,500, the developer $3,100 and the city $7,000.

--Postponed zone changes in the Cable Airport area until the June meeting to permit further study on the proposed recreational area.

--Continued the CUP-81 for a service station sought by Humble Oil at Campus and Foothill to enable the administration to negotiate on building design.

--Referred to the Planning Commission a suggestion that the Architectural Commission should be abolished.

Hocum Contests Mikesell For Supervisor's Post

GEORGE HOCUM

BACKGROUND

I was born in Minneapolis, Minnesota, in December, 1923, now 42 years old.

My family moved to California in 1930 and I have resided here since that time. Attended various elementary schools in Los Angeles County and graduated from Alhambra High School in 1940.

I entered the service shortly after the war started and served three years in the South Pacific theatre with the U. S. Coast Guard and was honorably discharged in 1945.

From 1946 to 1952 I was purchasing agent for a large plumbing and heating, and air conditioning contractor, doing work in all the western states. In 1952 I became the assistant sales manager for a firm manufacturing water filtration equipment and traveled extensively in the U. S., Mexico and Canada. In 1955 I became president and general manager of another firm in this field. The offices and plant were established in the Ontario area in 1958. When the firm relocated in Arizona in 1961 I moved to San Bernardino County and entered the insurance business.

I'm married, have seven children ranging in ages from one year to almost 21, and also have one grandson. I'm a member of St. Joseph's Church in Upland. I live with my family on the old Mt. Baldy Road.

I have been active in politics in the county since 1960 and am presently the 72nd Assembly District representative to the California Democratic Council.

I am a charter member of the Montclair Lions Club and was the first chairman of the group for the building fund raising committee for the Ontario-Pomona Assoc. for Retarded Children.

I am a member of the American Legion, Steele Towne Post, Fontana, the Pomona Valley Life Underwriters Assoc., and the Upland Chamber of Commerce, also the Cucamonga Service Club and the Sons of Italy.

Campaign headquarters have been set up at 846 W. Foothill Blvd., Suite J, Upland, California, 985-2733.

STATEMENT

The 1965 Grand Jury has severely criticized the County Supervisors for "ineptitude and Mismanagement", not only in the Park Moabi fiasco, "but at all levels of government."

The Supervisors are either "incompetent, or completely disinterested in the county's problems." In answer the Supervisors resented the charges but did not deny them. Their answer seemed to question the traditional right of the Grand Jury, and issued a request for the Grand Jury to clear all reports with the Supervisors before publication...a desire to make the Grand Jury a party to the Supervisors' inadequacies.

THE COUNTY ISSUES are many; unemployment, poverty, taxes, lack of industry, poor county services, parks and recreation, emergency hospital facilities, and sewers.

Our unemployment level of approximately 6.5%, almost twice the national average, makes San Bernardino County a poverty area, and our Supervisors have stood in the vanguard of those requesting Federal assistance; they have become refugees in the war on poverty. By their actions they seem eager to treat only the symptoms and not the cause of our problems.

OUR INDUSTRIAL growth has been pitifully slow when compared to surrounding counties. The crutch used by the Supervisors, that the lack of industrial sewers is at the bottom of the problem, is so much rot. There are hundreds of industries that do not need industrial waste disposal. What has been done to encourage these firms to locate in our County? These industries would give employment to construction workers and to permanent employees. They would give a broader tax base for a proper redistribution of taxes, to give the homeowner the tax relief necessary to our continued growth.

The Supervisors have, until recently, refused even to discuss emergency hospital facilities for the West End. Their claim that the county couldn't contract with private hospitals and that it would prove economically unfeasible has been proved to be untrue. For our own county, on investigation, has contracts with four hospitals in the desert area; and as to the cost, a study reveals that it would cost 25% less to treat emergency patients here rather than transport them to San Bernardino.

DANIEL D. MIKESELL

Supervisor Daniel D. Mikesell was born in Shawnee, Oklahoma. He attended elementary and High School in Needles, California, and continued his education at UCLA in Los Angeles. He and his wife, Gabrielle, have one son, Daniel D. Jr. and currently reside at 811 West Granada Court in Ontario, California.

Mikesell started his first term on the Board of Supervisors in December 1954 and served for four consecutive years. He did not run to succeed himself in 1958 but was re-elected in the Primary Election in June 1962 and began his second term in December of that year.

The supervisor is a past mayor of Ontario. He is a past president of the Ontario Airport Commission, of the Inland Council of Conservation Clubs, of the West End Fish & Game Association and of the Chaffey Booster Club.

Other community activities include: California Wildlife Federation, of which he is a past vice president; Old Baldy Boy Scouts of America, past director; American Association, Airport Executives member; Southern California Aviation Council, vice president; and Southern California Aviation Breakfast Club, member.

In the Supervisors Association, he is a member of the Highway Committee, and vice president of the Aviation Committee.

He is chairman of the Southern California Supervisors Association on Aviation and a member of the State Senate Sub-Committee on Aviation.

Mikesell is president of the Air Force Association, and a director with Californians for Modern Highways.

Sycamore PTA Board Finale

Sycamore PTA held its final Board meeting Tuesday, May 10 at the Sycamore Inn in the Tree Room.

The buffet luncheon was in honor of the out-going Board and the in-coming Board.

Mrs. Fred Gilley presented Mrs. Ray Rietkerk, PTA Presie
sident with a gift from the out-going Board, in appreciation of the excellent leadership during the past year.

The out-going Board presented a booklet of "Do's and Don't to the in-coming Board.

Cable Airport Recreational Program Receives Green Light

The proposed golf course and recreational area in the flight path at Cable Airport would in all likelihood qualify for about 50 per cent financing from the Housing and Urban Development Agency, Robert Bulot of the consulting firm of Stone and Youngberg told an audience of about 50 interested persons, Wednesday night in the council chambers.

However, Bulot stated that the people should not expect the golf course to be entirely self-supporting.

Involved in the project are 28 parcels containing 4.75 acres for a total of 133 acres and four parcels of 6.4 acres totaling 25.6 acres for a grand total of 158.6 acres.

Although, one spectator pointed out that more land should be added for recreation other than golf.

The outcome of the open meeting, presided over by Councilman Ronald Rossitter, was that everyone agreed to go ahead on the plan.

Two immediate steps are application for a federal grant which will be handled by Stone and Youngberg and a contact with all land owners after a fair market value on the land is decided. Members of the Realty Board indicated that they would cooperate in reaching the market value price.

Bulot pointed out that three methods are open for the development: (1) a grant from the federal government with income from the course repaying a large part the other 50 percent, (2) a joint authority arrangement or (3) a non-profit lease back plan.

It is decided that perhaps acquisition of the land could be handled by the city, rather than those property owners who favor the program attempting to sell the idea to others.

There are presently 16 structures on the proposed site, and they would have to be moved or demolished.

The "freeze" on the area expired at Tuesday's council meeting and the first action will be to renew it, while Stone and Youngberg prepares its application for a federal grant and the Realty Board and others work on a fair market value figure to approach the property owners.

No Action Taken On Pool Mishap At UHS, Apr. '65

The Chaffey Union High School Board of Trustees referred to an insurance carrier the claim of Mrs. Louise M. Jaggers who slipped and fell in the locker room of the Upland High School pool, Aug. 15, 1965.

Mrs. Jaggers had requested by letter that a claim be made against the insurance company, but no action was taken by the company.

On Apr. 13, Mrs. Jaggers presented a claim against the District. These documents were forwarded to the county counsel's office for advice in proceeding with handling of the claim.

The county counsel recommended that the documents be forwarded to the insurance company with a request for advice as to whether the board should accept or reject such claims since the insurance company must handle all litigation in such matters.

Mrs. Jaggers claim has been forwarded to the insurance company with a request for instructions as to procedures to be followed.

'Goodbye My Fancy' On Stage This Week

Never was there a more worried prop man than the Garrick Players' Ron Adamson! Adamson, who is gathering dusty footlockers, rickety skis and old time phonograph records for the Players' "Goodbye, My Fancy," recently admitted he was stumped over where to scare up a reproduction of Franz Hals' famed painting, "Laughing Cavalier."

Hearing of his plight, Sally Milne, who plays College Girl "Amelia" in the production, took brush in hand and rendered a faithful copy of the work. Mrs. Milne's "Laughing Cavalier" will occupy a place of honor in the play as a symbol of security for two generations of college girls.

"Goodbye, My Fancy," which is to be presented Friday, May 20, and Saturday, May 21, at the Alta Loma High School, 88880 Base Line St., is being directed by Maxine Coats Lentz. Featured in the cast are Loy Domingos, Ruth Henry, Bob Bourk and Bob Allen.

Cast in supporting roles are Dolores McNally, John Michik, Freda Gable, Mike O'Connor, Gloria McGinnis, Cleobell Heiple, Judy Fontanesi, Albert Carrier, Sally Milne, Glenna Sellars, Dianne McGinnis, Pat Breyman and Sandra McKenzie.

Active behind the scenes will be Gary Skinner, construction head; James Rae, stage manager; Julia Howard, casting head; Clark Marshall and Rick Samuelson, sound effects; and Ron Adamson, props. Directing the make-up is Vonnie Beard. Programs and posters are being done by Sandra McKenzie; ticket chairman is Ruth Henry.

Heading up the stage crew are Frank DeCrasto, Ron Adamson, Gary Skinner, James Rae, and Eddie Riggs. Tony Pleta is the producer of "Goodbye, My Fancy."

Curtain time for this smash comedy hit is 8 p.m. For ticket information, call 982-7087.

HIS IDEA, NOT HERS, this clinch in "Goodbye, My Fancy," Garrick Players production scheduled for an 8:15 p.m. curtain, Friday and Saturday, May 20 and 21, on the stage of Alta Loma High Auditorium. Bob Allan and Loy Domingos are the thespians.

Where Is An Official's Residence? Water Directors Produce Ruling

By MEL HODELL

When does a public official "reside" within the boundaries of his elective position? And when doesn't he?

If he has a new home in another city and even another county, does this change his "residence" and make him ineligible to continue in his public office or run for re-election?

The answer is not necessarily so, for the legal requirements as to "residence" include many points not on the surface of the case. And each public body may have different "residence" requirements.

Usually a person thinks of a "residence" as the home where you live.

Without coming to an "editorial" opinion at this time, I'd like to describe factually the results of my investigation into a "residence" matter this week.

* * *

THE INQUIRY BEGAN with the "information" that one of the directors of the Chino Basin Municipal Water District did not reside in his district, but had moved to Claremont.

The director is Ernest L. Keechler, who has a home now at 2553 N. Mountain, Claremont, which is in Los Angeles County. He purchased this home in July, 1965.

When Mr. Keechler was elected to the CBMWD four years ago he had as his official residence a home at 5088 Lincoln Ave., Chino, which is within the district he represents. He has sold this home, but has rented an apartment in Chino.

Mr. Keechler is running unopposed in the primary June 7 for re-election to the CBMWD in Division 3, which includes Montclair, Chino and parts of the unincorporated County.

Actually, he will not be on the ballot, for in such instances where there is no opposition, Registrar of Voters' Eleanor Felton publishes a legal notice to that effect and requests the Board of Supervisors to make an official appointment.

So, one easily may ask: If Mr. Keechler moved to Claremont, how can he still have "residence" within the district?

* * *

ACCORDING TO written legal opinions which I obtained and conversations with Mr. Keechler and Derrell E. Yaeger, attorney for the Chino Basin MWD, the requirements for "residence" include essentially the following:

Voting residence, business contacts, maintenance of a mailing address, a business office, sleeping quarters, other contacts within the division, and "intention regarding his place of residence."

On these points, Mr. Keechler and the CBMWD attorney believe that he does, in fact, still have "residence" within the district despite his having a home in Claremont, and that a court uned uphold his position.

I have been told in my interview with Mr. Keechler that he has an apartment in Chino Manor, Apt. 15, which he has had for 7 or 8 months. From this address, he maintains voting privileges in Chino. He has a mailing address in Chino at P.O. Box 253.

He has land and business interests at Central and Mission in Montclair. He maintains close personal contact with at least 50 ranchers through his soil fumigating business in the entire district. And he is a distributor for American Potash.

While he technically has no "business office" in the district, with business calls and office work being handled from his "home" in Claremont, he does maintain extremely close business contacts throughout the district.

AS FOR "INTENT" which is most important in the law's purpose for maintaining close contact within the district, as well as the public officials own frame of mind, Mr. Keechler and the CBMWD attorney see no problem. Mr. Keechler says he has "100% intention" of maintaining "residence" within the District.

Since "intention" of residence is so important in the matter, I asked Mr. Keechler for a statement that covered his "residence."

HE SAID "I was asked to serve on the Board (Appointed Aug. 10, 1961), to replace Ernie Soper when he died, with re-election for a 4-year term beginning Jan. 1, 1963) by many farmers for the simple reason I have been here all my life and know the needs of farmers, as they eventually will have a need for supplemental water.

"In the five years I have served I have injoyed service on the Board and have learned a lot. I feel I am in a position to continue to serve in a manner the voters would like. I have also served on the Water Conservation District in the past.

"Since my interest in the area is evident from 1907, and I spend most all my time in Chino with my many business interests, maintain an apartment, and have carefully asked in the past for legal advice as to residence requirements, I believe I am a resident of the district and want to continue to serve."

MR. KEECHLER ALSO is President of the Monte Vista Irrigation District, which includes an area bounded by State St., Monte Vista, San Antonio, and Phillips. This is a private district and not tax-supported, he said. The CBMWD never has supplied water to this district, which might raise the question of conflict of interest.

* * *

THE MATTER of Mr. Keechler qualifying for "residence" in a legal sense actually came before the CBMWD in a letter on the qualifications of directors dated May 25, 1965.

The letter was written by Derrill E. Yaeger of the law firm of Clayson, Stark, Rothrock & Mann of Corona, who handle CBMWD legal affairs.

I also talked with Mr. Yaeger at length May 2 to up-date the letter if necessary, and to get his oral interpretations and comments.

THE CONCLUSION as written in the letter is as follows:

"In the writer's opinion the answer to Question No. 1 turns upon the consideration of two basic issues. The first issue is, what result was being promoted by the legislature when they required "residence" within a division of Chino Basin Municipal Water District for each director.

"It would appear that the result hoped for was to have a director so closely intertwined with the affairs of that division as to assure a working and informed representative of the rights of that division. If the incumbent director maintains sufficient contacts with the division so as to assure that division of proper representation, it is my opinion that the legislative purpose has been accomplished.

"Since in this particular case the incumbent director does not intend to actually change his domicile to a place outside of the division and he maintains his landholdings and business within the division, his office does not become vacant merely by the purchase of a house outside of the division and some use of that house by the incumbent director.

"The second issue in this situation is to clothe the incumbent director with certain indicia of "residence" so as to prevent any future misunderstanding. Many California cases indicate that the place of voting registration is one of the most important acts to be considered in determining residence. Other indications of intent not to change residence would be the maintenance of a mailing address, a business office, sleeping quarters and other contacts within the division.

"In the event the incumbent director ever changes his intention regarding his place of residence and displays that intention by declaration or conduct, the result would, in the writer's opinion, be different."

IN OUR TELEPHONE conversation, in essence, Mr. Yaeger noted that the courts state that "contacts" of Mr. Keechler in representing his district is of importance and the basic second point is of "intent."

This latter is the most difficult point for no one really knows the intent of another person unless what he does or the statements he makes indicate his thinking.

Mr. Yaeger said that "residence" was a "funny term" that even the U.S. Surpreme Court has decided that a man may have two residences in two different states for tax purposes though he would have to pay taxes both places. However, for voting residence requirements, the rules are different and only one location may be called a residence.

He said the definition of residence is a "murkey one,"

No Excuses This Time

It should not be necessary, but it apparently is — to expend several hundred dollars to inform residents of Upland that there will be a public meeting, Tuesday, May 24, on the Civic Center.

Councilman Ronald Rossitter asked for $500 of the council after numerous candidates and others complained that they did not have an opportunity to learn about the Civic Center plans which were voted upon in January.

Last week, the news carried a big front page story announcing the May 24 meeting which will be held at the Upland High School at 7:30 p.m. ..We are repeating that story again this week and on the front page. In addition, a personal invitation from Councilman Rossitter appeared in a display advertisement.

What else this newspaper can do and what else Councilman Rossitter can do to inform the people, we do not know. Every effort is being expended to inform everyone who might be interested so that they may learn about the plans and serve on the public's committee.

Nothing could be fairer.

Similar informational meetings were held late in 1965 and again early this year, but attendance was scant and then the complaints rolled in "we were not told about it."

The NEWS is leaning over backwards to inform every citizen in Upland of the first meeting next Tuesday.

There is no question of the need for improvement of fire, police and library facilities as well as accommodations for city offices, and this is your opportunity to express yourself in a democratic manner on what you believe.

If you are not sufficiently informed on the matter when it comes to a vote again, you alone are to blame.

In addition the councilman is requesting people to write to him at his home address at 1560 W. Arrow Highway or call him at his home to express their opinions. In that way, he can present those views of people who are unable to attend the meeting.

This is your opportunity to be informed and to vote intelligently on the proposal as well as to express yourself.

We repeat "Nothing could be fairer."

First Nuclear Plant In Area 75% Complete

Construction of Southern California's first full - scale nuclear plant is now three-fourths complete, according to C.G. Shores, Upland local manager for Southern California Edison Company.

The 450,000-kilowatt San Onofre Nuclear Generating Station, located on the beach five miles south of San Clemente, is scheduled for completion "early in 1967," but will undergo a lengthy period of testing and trial operation before being placed in commercial service in 1968, Shores explained.

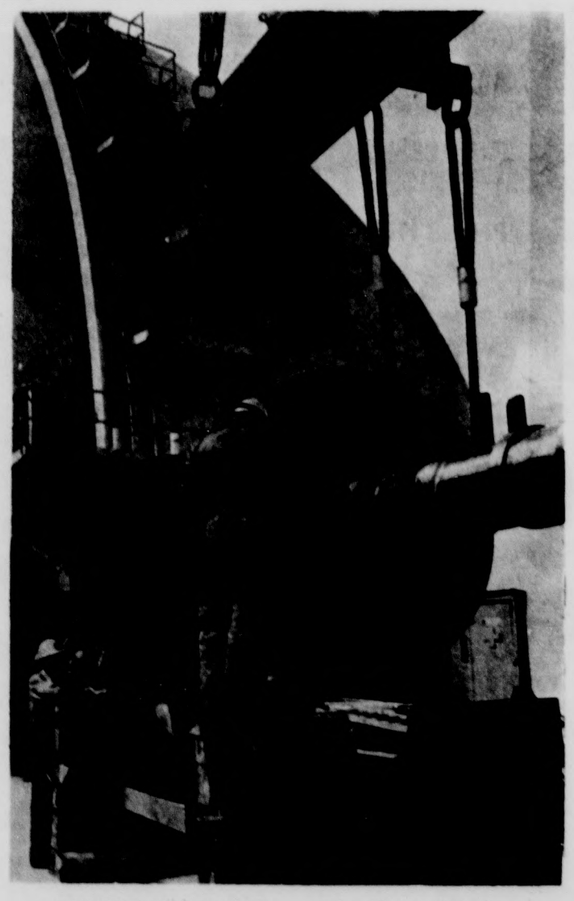

On an open air deck adjoining the hugh steel containment sphere, workmen this week were installing and adjusting a high pressure turbine--while in the sphere itself, others were completing installation of the control rods which will regulate the rate of nuclear fission inside the reactor.

DIVERS HAVE completed the arduous task of laying the intake and discharge conduits--each 12 feet in diameter--along the ocean floor. One hundred thirty thousand gallons of seawater per minute will be pumped through the plant to cool the steam after it has passed through the turbine.

Crews now are driving pilings into the ocean floor at the end of the intake conduit, 3200 feet from shore, and erecting a sea wall which will extend 28 feet above the level of the sea.

Work on the San Onofre installation, one of the world's largest nuclear plants, continues to draw large crowds daily to the Information Center, just off the Coast highway, which affords a panoramic view of the construction activities. The center also features a variety of "do-it-yourself" exhibits illustrating principles of nuclear fission and the generation of electricity from the atom. Movies on nuclear power also shown at intervals in the center, which is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., seven days a week.

The San Onofre plant will generate enough electricity to supply the needs of a city of well over half a million population. Costs and output of the station are to be divided between Southern California Edison, 80 per cent; and San Diego Gas & Electric Co., 20 per cent.

ALMOST COMPLETED — The first full-scale nuclear plant in Southern California is about 75 per cent completed. It is located on a beach five miles south of San Clemente and is scheduled for completion early in 1967.

March Building Permits Total Nearly $1 Million

March building permits in Upland fell short of the $1 million mark, but ranked close behind San Bernardino and Ontario.

Upland's total was $905,200 which was made up of two single dwelling permits for $67,000, 16 mulitply family dwellings of 64 units valued at $718,400 and two miscellaneous permits for $64,800.

The City of San Bernardino topped this county with permits valued at $1,423,199, followed by Ontario with $1,131,604.

In the unincorporated areas of San Bernardino County through March, 1966, there have been 643 new residential units authorized compared with 1,524 during the first quarter of last year. The Victor Valley area led all other areas in total dollar volume, while the Lake Arrowhead area and the northern perimeter of San Bernardino City contributed nearly one-third of the total new dwelling units authorized.

The monthly survey is compiled by the Security First National Bank.

Upland Taxable Sales Up $500,000 In 1965

Taxable sales in Upland during 1965 were $558,000 greater than during 1964, and most types of businesses added to the increase.

Three categories of business, however, dropped in 1965 below the preceding year, food stores (non-taxable items only) eating and drinking places, and building materials and farm implements.

There were more active sales tax permits in 1965 than 1964 in all categories on the list in the 1965 year-end report by the State Board of Equalization.

Taxable sales added up to $23,292,000, which is almost 2.4% more than the 1964 total of $22,734,000.

Building material and farm implement stores dropped $941,000 from sales of $4,090,000 in 1964 to $3,490,000 in 1965.

Food stores, although they increased from 14 to 20, declined $31,000 to sales of $2,259,000 in 1965. They charge tax on non-food items only.

Eating and drinking places dropped $46,000 below 1964, while increasing in number from 28 to 31.

Motor vehicle dealers and auto supply stores represented an increase in taxable sales of $480,000, taking taxes on a total of $7,420,000.

Second high gain was reported by general merchandise stores, who sold $403,000 more in 1965 than 1964, with a total of $794,000 in 1965 and $391,000 in 1964.

Package liquor store sales were up $188,000 to $550,000, and drug stores rose $148,000 to $785,000.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

The other evening a television performance reviewed the highlights of early day radio shows. It was nostalgic but entertaining for those of us who remember Fred Allen and Portland, Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians, Ben Bernie and others--and it brought back memories, such as:

PENNY CANDY

Do you remember the licorce whips, the jaw-breakers (which could be just that), the paraffin bottles with some mysterious sweet liquid, gum with a picture of a major leaguer on the back, the little black doll-like candy which had a name that the anti-discrimination committees would not approve of today?

THE GAMES

There was pump-pump pullaway, shinney played with a hockey-like stick and a tin can, wood tag, stink base, run sheep run--all played under the arc light with deadline for being back in the family parlor at 7:30.

On Saturday you could play one eye cat on the vacant lot, and if you had horded your 10 cent weekly allowance it was enough to admit your Saturday to the latest episode of a serial and a Tom Mix or Buck Jones western where the heroine was never kissed.

The swimming pool was some ditch bank and you generally walked through gummy mud to get to the water.

ENTERTAINMENT

There was the family piano and on occasions even the neighbors joined you in a songfest or just to sit and listen to the player piano or the Victorala.

A kids' party was a rare occasion and for entertainment there was a taffy-pull or a brazen game of postoffice if the chaperones weren't too strict.

Along came radio, and the first sets had earphones (almost like today's transistors). The sets squealed and roared and it was a big occasion when you could hear a complete sentence or recognize the tune being played.

The home was still the center of activity, and if you got the family car for the one big occasion of high school social life, the Junior Prom, you were a much-admired high-schooler.

THE STYLES

Bobbed hair and bangs came in along with short skirts and flapper styles, and practically all the somber souls predicted the end of the world.

The young men weren't without their fads in dress. . . first there were officers' boots which required boot hooks to get on, and then came golf knickers popularized by a fellow named Bobby Jones.

They had blazers back in those days, too, just like today, except the earlier style had wide-stripes.

AND THE IDOLS

It was the great era of sports with the Manassa Mauler Jack Dempsey, the four Horsemen of Notre Dame and the great coach Knute Rockne. There was also Red Grange.

Clara Bow was the "It" girl and you could be assured that if a movie star wore or fixed her hair that way, 90 per cent of young girls would soon follow (come to think about it, there's a young woman named Mia Farrell who has had the same influence today).

There was another star with slicked down hair who was known as the great screen lover, Rudolph Valentine. We weren't particularly a fan of his, but we would still take his hair-style in preference to the popular vogue of today.

IN REVIEW

Probably all those activities would be reviewed in a "how dull" manner today. . .but they all furnished memorable experiences in a much more relaxed world.

If you remember them all. . .Life has already begun for you at 40.

Sen. Nisbet Reviews Session And Expects End This Week

By Sen. Eugene Nisbet

As I write this, it seems likely that we will be able to wind up the work of our 1966 special sessions sometime during the third week of May. Going into the fifteenth week of the first special session sets a new record for such a session in an even-numbered year.

First positive sign that the Assembly parties warring over the 1966-67 budget bill might be ending came when the chairman of that house's Republican caucus released its program for cuts in the administration's proposed spending plan for the next fiscal year. The group's nine-member task force came up with a list of reductions totalling $61.6 million, and the caucus demanded their acceptance as its price for voting for the budget.

More than half the cuts, about $31.7 million, would be made in the enormous $1.6 billion welfare appropriation. The party spokesman said the reduction could be made without harm to necessary aid for the needy or sick. Limitation of appropriations to prevent any increased spending without complete justification would accomplish the desired result. Included in the cut would be $5 million in savings already planned by the Department of Finance.

Next largest slash would be $8.5 million from the administration proposal for anti-poverty centers. The party recommends that ten multi-agency service centers be eliminated as unnecessary, leaving only the two in Watts and East Oakland.

The Republicans also call for a reduction of $3.8 million in proposed allocations to local agencies for purchase and improvement of parks. The amount saved would later be used for purchase of state parks after adequate development studies are made.

Another part of the program proposes that $2 million be repaid to the general fund by the small craft harbor fund, which now has a surplus, it is alleged. Originally, before the small craft harbor fund was created, the amount was loaned from the general fund to help construct Los Angeles Playa del Rey marina, but so far, neither principal nor interest has ever been repaid.

In the University of California budget, the caucus recommended that $526,000 for 95 teaching assistant positions be eliminated. The group's chairman rejected the charge that this cut was intended as punishment for the University's troubles with student demonstrations and free speech troubles. This cut was first proposed by the Legislative Analyst last January in his report submitted to the regular budget session.

The caucus endorsed a change in the mental health after-care program which will save an estimated $500,000, in addition to making available some $12 million in federal money. These funds can be used to return the mentally ill to their homes when indicated by modern therapeutic standards.

Though the Economic Development Agency would be restored to life by a $350,000 item in the administration budget, after being completely axed in 1965, the Republican caucus advocates that only one position, instead of 22 jobs, be approved to answer queries about industrial plant location. In this, the group also concurs with the Legislative Analyst.

The caucus chairman declared that his party's economy proposals would reduce the need for new taxes the following year by the $61.6 million cut from this budget.

Former Upland College Teacher Receives Grant

Roland Fark, instructor in biology at San Jose State College, was awarded full stipend to be a participant in a National Science Foundation sponsored Conference on Marine Biology and Tropical Ecology to be held at the University of Puerto Rico July 4 through July 28.

Fark is presently teaching in the biology department at San Jose State College and is doing research work at the Moss Landing Marine Laboratory, owned jointly by five state colleges.

Fark was Assistant Professor of Biology at Upland College last year and was project director of a $7,000 matching NSF grant for undergraduate equipment and curriculum improvement which was awarded to the Upland College Biology Department last year.

Your Home Town Newspaper As Viewed By Girl Scouts

EDITOR'S NOTE: Members and leaders of Girl Scout Troop 1098 made a tour of the NEWS plant on March 18, and as a part of their troop activities, compiled a report on the tour. Here is what a newspaper plant looks like in the eyes of a young Girl Scout. A note of appreciation from Mrs. J. T. (Beverly) Fuller precedes the girls' report.

* * *

Dear Mr. Mason,

Please accept this very belated note of appreciation for the tour and kindnesses shown to the girls and leaders of Girl Scout Troop 1098 on March 18.

The girls found that newspaper work was even more interesting than they anticipated. Moreover they were delighted at your write-up and picture of them in the paper.

Please express my gratitude to Mr. Grimes and Mr. Hanes as well as to Mr. Hodell. It is cooperation such as yours that enables adults to continue working with young people's groups.

Again, thank you.

Sincerely,
Beverly Fuller, leader
Girl Scout Troop 1098.

P.S. I decided perhaps that I should send you a copy of the summary of the visit which each girl filled in and placed in her Community Scrapbook with the picture which you made.

The report is prefaced "Our visit to the Upland News":

* * *

People live in communities so that they can commune with one another. The word "commune" means to "confer with" which in turn means to "compare views".

Mr. Mel Hodell is the owner and publisher of the newspaper in our community. He prints the motto of THE UPLAND NEWS in each issue:

"Dedicated to Building A Bigger and Better Community In Which to Work, Live and Relax"

Mr. Hodell gave our troop an appointment to visit his newspaper plant and said that we would be told whatever we needed to learn about how it keeps our community informed. (MY COMMUNITY BADGE Requirement Number three.)

We were met by Mr. Harvey Grimes who directed us into the Editorial Department, where he introduced us to Mr. Mason, Managing Editor. Mr. Mason introduced Miss Bobbie Meier who assists him with typing. He said that it is his department which writes news stories and takes pictures.

He explained that they obtained news to print, sometimes by going out after it and sometimes by telephone. In writing the news, he first gives a headline in which he tries to tell what the news is about. Then, in the first paragraph which is called the "lead", he answers the five W's: 1. What, 2. Who, 3. Where, 4. When, 5. Why. After the news is written it is called a news story. It is then placed in a basket from which it is taken to be printed.

Next, we went to the Advertising Department where Mr. Grimes himself works. He called advertising the "nucleus of the newspaper". Whenever they get information on merchandise which people want to buy, he makes up an Ad. He showed us the basic composition of an ad on the big sheet of paper. He cuts out the parts of an ad, then pastes them on sheet which is then photographed, then, negative is taken off plate. Instead of using old galley type method, off-set print is used which means photographed. Sometimes a complete ad, called slick, is sent by merchandisers and sometimes grocers send simply a list of items which then has to be prepared before it can be photographed.

We then went to the Circulation Department where we were shown a map of Upland that was divided into districts, each of which has a manager. The managers deliver the bundled newspapers to the boys who then deliver them to residents. Fifty homes per boy is the limit. There were a number of cases of Sugar Daddy candy bars on tables. These are used as rewards to boys who get the most subscriptions to the NEWS.

On entering the last room of our tour we saw clipped to a line over a long counter-like cabinet, pages partially filled with pasted cutouts. Mr. Grimes showed us how he used the roller after every part was put together to be sure everything was pasted down tight.

While we were looking at the lay-out section, Mr. Mason took our picture.

Mr. Grimes explained that pages were separated according to whether they contained General News, Society News, Editorial News, Sports, etc.

A lady was using a new Just-o-writer Machine which justifies letters and spaces automatically so that margins of columns are exactly even. We saw big black machines, but they were not in use.

Politics-a Neutral View

FILE 13

By Walt Orvis

The politicians are my friends. At least that's what a lot of them are telling me. You'd think I was a voter or something, or a means to a lot of free publicity.

I keep getting junk through the mail from near and far. Everybody wants his name in the paper. We'll print their names all right, one of these days. We may even comment on the issues and the candidates.

We've been known to make a pointed statement or two, now and then. The last few years various people have made comments about the lack of editorial comment in the weekly press.

Those making all the noise haven't been reading the papers that carry File 13.

* * *

Speaking of politics and politicians, the larger picture with this column below shows what I did with my little knife and one candidate's bit of ballyhoo. I thought my readers should get a look at the girls, but the candidate wasn't nearly so cute. I forget now which candidate it was.

The smaller shot came with a political release. She seems to be some kind of politician's helper or something. Can't remember which politician. But after looking at her and at the candidates, I think she's far better looking than any of them.

* * *

There seems to be nothing like politics to bring out the worst in politicians. They really get down to some serious knife throwing. Don't ever turn your back after you file for office. One of your friendly competitors may be lurking behind you.

* * *

Reagan and Christopher should draw out a lot of Republicans in the primary, and Yorty vs. Brown and the lieutenant governor's race should bring out many Democrats.

How's this analysis:

Braden has the earmarks of a Kennedy carpetbagger. Lloyd Hand was sent by the Johnson machine. Incumbent Glen Anderson is running as part of the so-called Brown machine. It's called that because it owns an incumbent governor by the name of Brown.

I forget who the politician was who sent this, but I'll bet she'd win more beauty contests than the guy she's working for.

However, there are a couple of other guys who really run things, and Brown, I think.

If Brown gets re-elected and Hand wins the second spot, Johnson will appoint Brown to a high federal post, so he will own the governor of the country's most populous state. But if Braden or Anderson is elected, what then? Johnson will have to make a deal with someone.

You've heard of deals in politics? They happen, all the time, in both parties.

Power is the thing, and the big boys play for big power.

* * *

Sam Yorty is sure kicking up a fuss. Trouble with a maverick like that is that he doesn't always play by the rules. The people like it, because it gives them a choice.

Political parties don't like such mavericks. They want men they can control, who will reverse their field on any question "for the good of the party."

* * *

Yorty's charges about communists and the CDC bear a grain of truth. The way-out left tends to work or worm, into the Democratic party because they are not so conspicuous there.

The way-out right is trying to capture the Republican party, again because camoflauge is easier there than in the Democratic party, except maybe where localized conditions distort things, like in Alabama.

* * *

Yorty I like because he is a maverick. He's won a lot of offices in his career, elected by the people, not by the politicians, as are most high office holders.

It's interesting sitting back and observing the struggle for power that goes on in political campaigns, especially when I feel so neutral, as I always do, in any election, local or national.

* * *

Only one thing I can't figure out when it comes to politics --should I laugh, or cry?

GIRLS are prettier than politicians, aren't they?

Jack Pritchard Honored By 'Fun After 50' Club

Jack Pritchard, 1965 past president of the Upland Senior Citizens 'Fun After Fifty' club, was unanimously selected to receive an award for the most outstanding contributing member of the club, to be given by the San Bernardino County Council of Community Service at a meeting May 26th at the North Sierra Street Presbyterian Church in San Bernardino. Ten other members were included in the invitation, so the board members were selected to go.

The Fun After Fifty Club met for their regular potluck dinner at the Memorial Park Club House Friday, May 11, Earl Hawthorne presiding and Chris Hooker led the opening ceremonies with Mrs. Hooker at the piano.

Two guests, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dolata, and four new members, Verbia Bailey, Minnie Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Sig Basi were introduced and greeted.

Catalina was chosen as the tour for June when asked for a decision by tour director Glen Tower.

Also discussed was the way to celebrate the club birthday for 1966. The outcome was that a dinner at Elton's will be held.

Everyone not registered for the new year is urged to do so early so there will be no hold up on the new membership list.

As Mothers' day entertainment, Mrs. Ruth Bancroft gave an appropriate reading; Mrs. Orville Carter and Mr. Hooker sang a duet; Mrs. Ramona Baca and Mrs. Frank Clement whistled two songs accompanied by the altos of the Ladies' Chorus, the same group of the Chorus singing five numbers with Mothers' day in mind as a conclusion.

Homer C. Davis Gets Promotion

Teachers accompanying the students were Mrs. Eisengerg and Mrs. Williams. They were guided through the campus by Kim Richards and Pat Haproff who explained the college's work with Arabian horses, poultry, beef cattle, swine, sheep and horticulture.

They also saw the famous Kellogg Arabian horses.

Chief Wessely Issues Warning On Salesmen And Fraud Deals

The last session of the California legislature saw the enactment of new laws to protect Californians from fraudulent sales practices. Police Chief John Wessely stated that these laws are important because they were deisnged to protect consumers from dishonest businessmen and to protect honest businessmen from dishonest competitors.

The major area of legislative action was in the area of installment contracts. The new law now requires that application forms for a retail installment account must set forth rates of service charges and the balance on which the charges will computed.

The Police Chief warned citizens to carefully consider any major purchases before obligating themselves. "It is important to think an offer over thoroughly before signing a contract," he added. If possible, it is a good practice to compare prices with reputable merchants.

In any event no contract should be signed until it has been carefully read and understood. The Chief pointed out that the law now requires that contracts contain the total cost of the goods when they are bought on time.

"Be especially suspicious of big bargains or pre-payment requests," Wessely stressed. Individuals should also be very cautious of salesmen who try to rush you into signing a contract immediately. Wessely added, "High pressure salesmen often claim that you must sign now because they cannot make such an offer again."

Another technique which often involves questionable practices is the use of the telephone for home sales. Wessely said, "Citizens should beware of persons who call and state that you have been selected for a special survey or have won a free drawing. Such a practice is often a method used for selling purposes." Investigate any such offers before becoming involved.

The Chief advised residents, "Never permit unidentified solicitors, alleged inspectors or repairmen to enter your home unless they properly identify themselves. Many legitimate people will sell products or services door-to-door," he said, "but they are ready and willing to identify themselves."

The best protection against fraud is to deal with businessmen that you know and trust. But if you do get cheated contact the local police immediately.

"Many people are ashamed to admit that they have been cheated," Wessely said. "Such individuals should realize that these dishonest businessmen are very shrewd and can deceive even the most intelligent individual." By reporting fraudulent incidents to the police, individuals are helping to protect their friends and neighbors.

City Authorizes Texas Trip To View Machinery

Two city employes will travel to Long View, Texas to investigate a $60,000 cut and cover heavy equipment machine to be used at the city disposal site.

City Manager Elwin Alder asked that the expenses for the two be paid so that they could investigate the equipment and watch it in operation, at the April 19 meeting.

Alder said that there are no cities using the equipment in California, but the City of Long View is using it and it is where the factory is located.

Alder pointed out that inasmuch as this will be a sizeable investment, he felt that it should be viewed and representatives of the manufacturer (LeTourneau) has offered to pay for travel expenses should the equipment be purchased.

The motion to authorize the employes to travel to Texas to view the equipment and the cost of traveling not to exceed $500 was made by Councilman Ronald Rossiter and seconded by Council Zella Stone.

It carried by a 4-1 vote with Mayor Pro Tem George Gibson casting the only dissenting vote.

Alder pointed out that the company had some heavy equipment on construction projects in California, but none comparable to the one which will be investigated in Texas.

Witnesses Plan Ontario Conclage

Russell D. Cantwell, circuit minister for 20 congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses in the East San Gabriel Valley, announced the theme for the coming semi-annual circuit convention to be held June 3-5 at the Gardiner W. Spring Auditorium in Ontario to be "Make Disciples of People of All the Nations." This theme is based on the words of Jesus recorded at Matthew 28:19-20.

Edward F. Liesmer, presiding minister of the Upland congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, in extending an invitation to the Upland residents to attend the convention stated, "The program will provide an opportunity for interested persons to view the discipling work of this Christian group.
